A. Attendance

B. Behavior Problem ☐1. Absenteeism ☐2. Chronically Late ☐C. Academic Problems ☐3. Medical ☐D. Other ☒

This seems to be a case of 2 friends conspiring to cut class!

2. Explain the problem:

Charles B. came to class saying Mr. Schultz needed to see Harry. He had just come from the library to write a note on the prov. Harry came back down and said Mr. Schultz needed a note for the so I wrote a uniform. Mr. Schultz came down and asked if I was allowing Harry.

3. Briefly summarize what you have done to correct this problem. IF DETENTION WAS ASSIGNED, GIVE THE DATES AND INDICATE WHETHER STUDENT APPEARED FOR DETENTION.

Because this seemed to be a conspiracy between Charles B. & Harry to get them out of class. I felt it was a situation the 1st principal needed to be aware of & determine.

 Change from SV to SRCC Manifestation Determination ☐ Behavior Support Plan or Adjustment ☐ Other ☐

MEASURABLE ANNUAL GOAL: Identify appropriate solutions to interpersonal and self-related problem behaviors.

SHORT-TERM INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES OR BENCHMARKS:

OBJECTIVE / BENCHMARK: Develop consistent patterns of appropriate behavior through a program of therapeutic behavior support.

- EXPECTED LEVEL OF ACHIEVEMENT – a performance level system is used to increase expectations and responsibilities.
- EVALUATION SCHEDULE – daily and weekly
- METHOD OF EVALUATION – daily observations; charting of progress towards goals is communicated to the student as well as to the parents
- SPECIALLY DESIGNED INSTRUCTION – Consistent participation in social skills training and in counseling program as well as medication management. An individualized intervention plan will be developed in conjunction with IEP goals and objectives. Transition activities for the return to the home school are planned and carried out with a multidisciplinary team approach.

SCHOOL AGE PROCEDURAL SAFEGUARDS LETTER

Date

1-18-02

Dear

Parent

R. [REDACTED] P. [REDACTED]

This notice describes your rights and the procedures that safeguard your rights under Pennsylvania Special Education law and regulations, found in Chapters 14 and 342 of the Pennsylvania School Code, and the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 (P.L. 105-17), commonly referred to as "IDEA '97." These laws and regulations require school districts to provide a Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) to all students with disabilities who are eligible for special education. FAPE means special education and related services designed to meet the individual educational needs of your child. These services must be described in an Individualized Education Program (IEP) and provided at no cost to you.

The information contained in this Notice is important to you and your child. Please take time to review it. While we have attempted to consolidate a great deal of legal language and technical jargon into a readable format, we recognize that the information can be cumbersome. If you need clarification of these requirements, you can seek help from personnel in your school district. You also have the right to be informed of organizations that are established to assist parents in understanding their rights under these laws. A list of some of these resources follows.

If you have a concern about your child's educational program, you may wish to contact your child's teachers, principal, or district administrators. This type of communication is often helpful in resolving concerns. You also have the right under federal law to file a complaint with the Pennsylvania Department of Education and/or to initiate due process procedures as described in Section VI of this notice.

Sincerely,

A. Pecora HSV

Memo

To: Jo Barker, Director/Elementary-Middle School Programs
From: Marlene Chrisman, Special Education Supervisor
CC: F. Scozzie/Charlise Moore/Jim Piekanski
Date: 01/15/02
Re: B-Mod Referrals

The purpose of this memo is to provide information on two students who are being referred to Sarah Reed per Frank Scozzie. Both girls were involved in a recent situation at SV of the nature and intensity that staff, including Mr. Scozzie, feels this level of intervention is essential. Both girls are under age 14 and, therefore, not eligible for the Adolescent Partial program.

The girls are:

1. Blind due to placement in Rachel's folder
 2. R [REDACTED] P [REDACTED] (DOB: [REDACTED]/88) grade 7LS
- [REDACTED]

It is my understanding that Mr. Scozzie would like the girls to begin this placement as soon as possible. Please contact Charlise Moore or myself to assist in this process.
